Q- 1   Read the following passage carefully.

A little boy lived in a village situated on the bank of river Ganga. He was orphan and used to get his food from the people living in his village. Everyday, He used to play in a garden which was situated in his village. One day the boy sat leaning against the trunk of a tree, cried and sighed, '' I am hungry.'' Eat my fruits'', said the kind tree and it bent down one of its branches. The little boy ate fruits and felt satisfied.

Many years passed and the boy grew up. Then once again he sat under the tree with a look of dejection and helplessness. '' What is it?'', the tree asked, '' My wedding day is bare a week away and I have nowhere to live. '' Cut down my branches and build yourself a house'', said the tree. The young man sat to work immediately.

Time passed and now the young man was a sailor. Once again he sat under the tree with a look of remorse on his face. It again is cruel, so to survive I must own a ship.'' ''cut down my trunk and build a ship'', said the tree.

The sailor grew old but once again he turned to the tree with a laden expression on his face. It was cold and the sailor leaned on his stick was trembling. '' Make a fire of me'', said the stump of the tree. It soon burnt in the fire softly humming a tune.
